Wailuku, HI - Imua Family Services is celebrating its 60th Anniversary with a special Barefoot Black Tie – Maui Style Fundraiser being held Saturday, November 3rd at the Hui No’eau Visual Arts Center from 5:30 until 10 pm. The proceeds from this event will support the organization’s efforts to provide therapeutic intervention to children with developmental delays and special needs and support to their families.

A gourmet dinner, intimate concert featuring Barefoot Natives, Willie K and Eric Gilliom, and select wines from the Barefoot Winery in California will be featured at the event which starts at 5:30 p.m. “We are honored to partner with Imua Family Services to support the essential services they provide our community”, said Brian Kohne, Producer of the Barefoot Natives. “We are asking others to join us as we work towards insuring the programs of Imua Family Services will continue to enrich the lives of our friends and families”. The event will also showcase Maui’s premier beauty and spa establishments through their donation of creative baskets featuring foot and body pampering products and experiences which will be sold during the evening.

“Imua Family Services is ready to celebrate Maui style – with the island’s first ever Barefoot Black Tie,” said Executive Director Karen Jayne. “We invite everyone to come enjoy this 60 year milestone with us.”

Imua Family Services challenges and inspires our community by helping children with special needs and their families achieve their full potential through support, education, prevention and treatment. Tickets for the event are $150 per person. Corporate sponsorships and tables are also available. For more information or to purchase tickets call 244-7467 or visit www.imufamilyservices.org.
